

By: Rudy Lopez

L.A. Nature Fest is a two-day festival that celebrates L.A.'s wild side!

Saturday, March 14, 9:30 am - 5 pm & Sunday, March 15, 9:30am – 5pm Los Angeles
Natural History Museum 900 Exposition Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90007
213.763.DINO (3466)

There's a surprising amount of nature in Los Angeles, and the more you know how to look for it, the more you'll see. You'll be blown away by the plants, animals, and the people devoted to protecting and studying them.

L.A. Nature Fest unfolds in our very own Nature Gardens, the outdoor space where museum scientists do real research and educators share nature's coolest stories. Each day will be filled with performances, hands-on activities, and presentations.

PAST FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE

- Meet live animals such as falcons, owls, opossums, and reptiles
- Build your own bird houses! Limited availability, first come, first served
- Raptor flight demonstrations
- Over 35 exhibitor booths with local organizations
- Talk face to face with scientists and nature experts who are excited to answer your questions
- Free giveaways from the Tree People and seed packets from Big Green
- Hands on nature crafts and activities